I am going to ask you some questions about your community.

First, people often refer to the community in which they live and work. However, the idea of community may mean different things to different people. When you refer to your community, what geographic area best describes what you mean?

Interviewer: We want to know the geographic area that best describes what they consider their community. If they will not define community in geographic terms, select 'Do not know'.

1. Your local neighborhood
2. Your village, town or city
3. Your county or borough
4. Your region of NYS (Adirondacks, Central NY, Western NY, etc.)
5. Some other geographic region (describe . . .) [specify]
6. The idea of "community" has no meaning to me [goto nysimp] [green]
7. Do not know [goto nysimp]
8. Refused [goto nysimp]

In your opinion, what do you think is the single most important issue facing your community as a whole?

Interviewer: Do not read list, select option below that best represents the R's answer. If R provides more than one answer, have them choose the single most important problem. If R's answer does not fit any of the categories below, select 'Other' and specify. [white]

1. Crime
2. Economic growth (economy)
3. Education
4. Employment
5. Environment
6. Health care
7. Housing (affordability/availability)
8. Immigration (foreign)
9. Land development
10. Local government (accountability/efficiency)

Every community has good points and bad points about living within it. Thinking about availability, cost, quality, and any other considerations important to you, how satisfied or dissatisfied are you with the following aspects of your community? Are you very dissatisfied, dissatisfied, neither satisfied nor dissatisfied, satisfied, or very satisfied with ...

1-Very dissatisfied
2-Dissatisfied

Most people who immigrate legally to the United States have close family ties here. Some people think that family ties should be less important and factors such as education and skills should be emphasized to determine who is allowed to immigrate here. Which of the following statements is closest to your own opinion.

- Reuniting families should remain a top priority of our immigration system
- Education and skills should be the key factors determining who can come, and family should not be an important factor
- Both family ties and education/skills should be equally important factors

[cyan]We are looking for survey respondents who are willing to have an additional follow-up interview at some point in the next year, so that we can ask you more about the topics covered in today's interview. This may be another phone interview, or it may be in-person, in which case the researcher would arrange to meet you at a location convenient to you. Might you be willing to be interviewed in this way and if so, could we contact you about it?[white]

<1> Yes  <0> No

@if @a eq <1>@cyan
Your name and identity will not be published anywhere or shared with other researchers. In order to contact you to set up the interview, however, could you please tell me the best phone number to reach you. Is it this one we're using right now or a different number? [white]

<1> This number  <2> Different number

@if @b eq <2>@cyan
What number should we use?  @area @prfx @sufx[endif]

And can you tell me your email address? [green]If they don't have one or refuse to give an email address, [bold]leave this blank[n][green].
